GVM AUCTIONEERS – PLANT AND MACHINERY SALES

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Before Selling, Bidding for or Buying any item, it is important that these terms and conditions are read.

Care has been taken to insure the accuracy of the catalogue but no sale shall be invalidated by reason of an defect or false in an of the lots by reason of any of the lots being incorrectly described in the catalogue and no compensation shall be paid in respect in respect of any such faults or errors in description. The auctioneers give no warranty as to the genuineness or authenticity of the goods & the purchaser shall accept every lot with all faults and errors description.

In the case where a purchaser deals as a consumer within the meaning of The Sale of Goods & Supply of Services Act 1980 (the “1980 Act”) nothing herein is intended nor will it affect or prejudice the contractual rights which such a purchaser enjoys by virtue of Sections 12-15 (inclusive) of the Sale of Goods Act 1893`, as amended (the”1893 Act”) and where dealing otherwise than as a consumer within the meaning of the 1980 Act, all terms implied by the 1893 Act and the 1980 Act are hereby excluded. All parties agree to accept these terms and conditions as binding on them and all items are sold subject thereto unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by GVM Auctioneers (the “Auctioneer”) No item shall be deemed to have been accepted for sale in our auction by the auctioneer unless and until the party selling the item (the “Vendor”) shall have first completed signed and delivered to the Auctioneer an official entry form, together with any registration documents (if applicable) and payment of the relevant entry fee, whereupon the item may be entered for sale in accordance with the terms of entry and subject to the following conditions:

(1) The auctioneers are prepared to accept commissions on behalf of the intending purchaser who are unable to attend a sale provided such commissions are given in writing, in which event they will be carried out free of charge to the intending purchaser. The auctioneers are not responsible for nor are they in any way connected with, commission to purchase lots given to any member of their staff other than by the auctioneers.

(2) The Purchaser must be satisfied as to the actual condition of the item prior to commencement of bidding and or sale. By the act of bidding the Purchaser shall be deemed to have inspected the item purchased and to have accepted the item in its condition in all respects including all its faults and defects of whatever nature (if any). Any express or implied condition or warranty whether arising by custom, common law or by reason of the provisions of any statute with regard to the description or suitability or fitness for purpose, merchantable quality or road worthiness of the item is expressly excluded.

(3) The Auctioneer acts in the sale of the item as agent only and is not responsible in any way for any default by either the Purchaser or the Vendor. The Auctioneer shall not be liable in any way whatsoever regarding such a contract and the Vendor and the Purchaser shall have no rights of action except as against each other concerning any matter arising from the sale of or legal ownership of the said item.

(4) All items are offered for sale subject to any reserve price set by the Vendor. The highest bidder shall be the Purchaser (in excess of the reserve) and in the event of dispute the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle the matter or to re-offer the item for sale. The Auctioneer’s decision shall be final and binding. The Auctioneer may regulate the bidding, refuse any bid and withdraw any item without previous notice. The Auctioneer may bid on the Vendor’s behalf on any item offered either with a reserve or subject to the Auctioneer’s discretion. Each item entered and accepted shall be auctioned individually or in lots and bids shall only be accepted for the item auctioned at the particular time.

(5) The Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse to accept any item in its auction or sale. The Auctioneer gives no warranty as to the Vendor’s title or right to sell, each entry being accepted in good faith and without knowledge as to any defect in the Vendor’s title.

(6) The Purchaser acknowledges that no warranty is expressed or implied and no representation has been made or relied upon. The final responsibility for assessing the condition of any item rests with the bidder prior to the commencement of the auction/sale.

(7) All items are offered in their condition at the time of sale and in the location of sale unless otherwise stated. No express or implied warranties or representations are given by the Auctioneer, whether as agents or otherwise, as to the condition, hours, mileage or description of the item in any published catalogue or advertisement. The Auctioneer does not guarantee the hours, odometer or clock reading on any item for sale. No representation is made as to the past use of any item for sale.

(8) The Auctioneer does not accept any responsibility for the loss of or from damage to any item or other property on its premises, whether or not the same is entered for sale in its auction, and every person on the Auctioneer's premises before, during or after the auction/sale shall be deemed to be there at his/her own risk and with notice of the condition of the premises and of the method of arranging the items or otherwise. Such persons shall have no claim against the Auctioneer in respect of any injury sustained or any accident which may occur from any cause whatsoever.

(9) The Auctioneer reserves the right to add additional conditions of sale to any sale it conducts. It also reserves the right to modify or withdraw any of the above conditions. In such circumstances, additions, modifications or withdrawals will be announced at the commencement of the auction or any time during the auction.

(10) No person may advance less at a bid than a sum to be named from time to time by the auctioneers.

(11) The Auctioneer may, without giving any reason, refuse to accept the bidding of any person or persons.

(12) The Auctioneer shall not be liable to pay the Vendor until payment is received in full from the Purchaser and if the said purchaser fails to make such payment the Auctioneer reserves the right to rescind the contract on behalf of the Vendor, but without prejudice to any claim that the Vendor may have against the Purchaser for damages or otherwise.

(13) Any property found in a vehicle, or equipment shall not pass to the Purchaser until the Purchaser has made payment in full for such items. The Auctioneer reserves the right to forbid the removal from its premises of any item purchased until the payment conditions have been met in full. Items that have not been paid for under the terms of the auction may be repossessed by or on behalf of the Vendor or the Auctioneer and representatives of the Vendor or the Auctioneer who may at any time enter into any premises where the item is present for the purpose of effecting such repossession.

(14) Where any item offered for sale is in such a condition as to make its use upon the public roadway or in respect of which there is a defect which at the time of sale would render the said item a danger to the public, including persons using or travelling in the item, there shall be deemed to be incorporated into the contract between the Vendor and the Purchaser a term that the item will not be used and is not intended for use in the condition in which it is sold to the Purchaser, together with an undertaking on the part of the Purchaser that the item will not be used in any way in contravention of the requirements in these or in any other respects imposed by the Road Traffic Acts 1961 to 1968 and the regulations and bye laws made hereunder or otherwise by law, and that the Purchaser should satisfy themselves in regard to such matters prior to the removal of the item from the auctioneer's premises.

(15) If any item entered for sale is not sold by public auction but is subsequently sold by the Vendor or his/her agent on the auction premises, any firm or corporate body attending, or whose servant or agent is attending the auction sale on the day of the auction, that sale shall be deemed to have been effected by the Auctioneer as agent for the Vendor and commission shall be due to the Auctioneer upon such sale. The Auctioneer shall not be liable in any way whatsoever regarding such a contract and the Vendor and the Purchaser shall have no rights of action except as against each other in respect of any representation whether expressed or implied, or any rights of action, except as against each other in respect of any representation, whether expressed or implied, or any rights or liabilities whether express or implied by common law statute or otherwise in connection with or arising from such sale of or legal ownership of the item.

(16) If any warranty or representation shall be found to have been made inadvertently and in good faith, by the Auctioneer arising solely and exclusively from an announcement based on information provided by the Vendor and/or stated by the Vendor on the entry form, then such warranty or representation shall be deemed to be a warranty or representation by the Vendor, who shall at all times indemnify the Auctioneer from and against any liability, therefore whatsoever and however arising provided always that the Vendor hereby agrees and confirms that the Purchaser shall have the right to rescind the contract for sale of the item if it has been materially misrepresented by reason of its condition, age or mechanical condition, but only if the Purchaser gives notice of same to the Auctioneer. The item must in such instance be returned to the auction yard within 5 days of the auction/sale and subject to the opinion/report of the Auctioneer's engineer as to such matters which shall be conclusive and binding on both parties.

(17) On the fall of the gavel/hammer or other similar act which concludes the bidding, the purchaser of the item (the "Purchaser") shall have entered into an unconditional contract to purchase the item. All payments must be by Bank Draft, Bank Transfer, or Cash. (Cheques not accepted unless persons are known to the mart). Thereafter, the item shall be at the purchaser's risk, at all other times the item is at the Vendor's risk. In the case of any dispute, any remedy of the Purchaser shall be against the Vendor only (including an action for breach of any fundamental obligation herein) and under no circumstances shall any remedy lie against the Auctioneer or any agent or employee of the Auctioneer. However, for the avoidance of doubt if the purchaser has any right to a remedy against the Auctioneer he/she hereby waves that right.

(18) In respect of any notices required to be sent in accordance with the terms and conditions herein, the same shall be in writing and may be deemed to have been received if delivered or sent by ordinary post to the last known residence or place of business of the person to whom it is addressed.

(19) These terms and conditions of business shall be deemed or be incorporated into all contracts of sale affected by the Auctioneer whether by way of public auction or private treaty.

(20) The Vendor warrants to the Auctioneer that good title to the item concerned will pass to the Purchaser.

(21) Where a Vendor enters an item into the auction and then withdraws the item within 5 working days prior to the auction taking place, the Vendor will be charged a withdrawal fee.

(22) If within 14 Working Days of the auction and notification in writing by the Auctioneer to the Vendor in respect of an item which has not been sold in accordance with these terms and conditions and/or An item which has not been removed from the Auctioneer's premises by the Vendor or the Purchaser as the case may be and/or A failure to instruct the Auctioneer as to what action the Vendor or Purchaser as the case may be requires the Auctioneer to take into respect of any such item. Then the Auctioneer reserves the right and shall be deemed to have been instructed by the Vendor or the Purchase, as the case may be, to offer for sale any such item at a reserve price, which in its own absolute discretion is considered by it to be fair and reasonable in all the circumstances but without liability whatsoever to account to the Vendor or the Purchaser as the case may be in default as aforesaid for any shortfall which may be incurred in respect of the price on such resale.

(23)The Auctioneer (GVM Group) does not accept any responsibility for the loss of or from damage to any item or other property on its premises, whether or not the same is entered for sale in its auction, and every person on the Auctioneer's premises before, during or after the auction/sale shall be deemed to be there at his/her own risk and with notice of the condition of the premises and of the method of arranging the items or otherwise.

(24)The Auctioneer (GVM Group) including employees do not accept any responsibility for any damage caused to any item or other property when loading or unloading such item or property even with the assistance of our staff or plant machinery. This applies to every person on the Auctioneer's premises before, during or after the auction. Such persons shall have no claim against the Auctioneer in respect of any injury sustained or any accident which may occur from any cause whatsoever.

(25)The Auctioneer (GVM Group) including its employees do not accept any responsibility for any unsafe loads entering or leaving this premises. It is the responsibility of the driver of the vehicle hauling the load (item or other property) to ensure any load is secure and safe for transporting.

(26) All persons (excluding GVM Group employees) engaged in loading or unloading equipment are deemed to have their own adequate insurance cover and are further deemed to be properly trained to carry out their duties”.
